

EDITORIAL

We are happy to introduce you Special Issue of EJPCE in the first days of the New Year. This special issue consists of some articles which were presented in the IX. National Science and Mathematics Congress held in İzmir, Turkey at 9 Eylül University on 23-25 September 2010. Many of the congress articles that match with EJPCE scope were submitted to our journal. However, only ten of them were accepted to be published in this special issue.

We also inform you that EJPCE is approved in the directory Cabell, EBSCO and Asian Education Index besides our present indexes.

We wish all our readers, authors and reviewers a new year full of happiness, success and health.

Dr. Orhan KARAMUSTAFAOĞLU
